DEDICATION

MRS. MADGE CATES

This issue of the Penguin is dedicated to Mrs. Madge Cates.

For more than a quarter of a century she has given whole hearted love and devotion to the teaching of the youngest members of our student body.

In addition to class-room instruction she continues to lend a listening ear and an understanding heart to perplexed children; thus she fulfills a position beyond the call of class-room duties.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

SENIOR CLASS

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS, of the School of White's, of the City of Wabash, of the County of Wabash, of the Commonwealth of Indiana, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, Hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

First. I, Steve Goans, President of the Senior Class do hereby will my brogan socks to one Mary Sears.

Second. I, Milton McGee, of sound mind do hereby will my height to one Ken Hargis.

Third. I, Phil Rubright, Vice-President of the Senior Class do hereby will my good grades to one Earnest Cummings.

Forth. I, Larry Southerton, do hereby will my tremendous basketball head to one Don Divine and his football nose.

Fifth. I, Harold Wright, of sound body do hereby will my yellow lettered shirt to one Ronnie Hawkins.

Sixth. I, Jeanette Beard, do hereby will my lovely red freckles to one Bruce Copper.

Seventh. I, Mary Bryant, do hereby will my flaming personality to Roy Steffen.

Eighth. I, Linda Bush, of sound mind and body do hereby will my slimness to one Joe Hale.

Ninth. I, Regina Patrick, do hereby will my fantastically long fingernails to one Sandi Shaw.

Tenth. I, Janet Smith, of sound mind do hereby will my talkativeness to one Mike Thornburg.

Eleventh. Diana Witham, do hereby leave my used tooth-brush to James Wright.

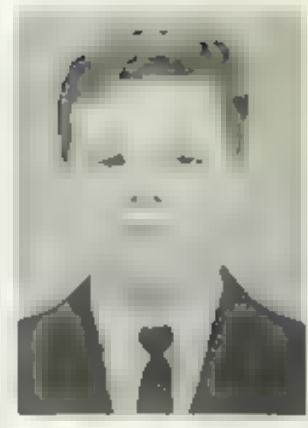

In Witness Whereof, we, The Senior Class, The Testors, Have set our hands and sealed hereto this Nineteenth Day of May in the year of our Lord One Thousand and Nine Hundred and Sixty-Seven.
